

ANNA ZENNARO FROM ITALY

ANNOUNCED AS FINALIST IN THE SECOND GLOBAL ART AWARDS

TAKING PLACE AT THE FIVE JUMEIRAH PALM DUBAI, UAE, 21ST NOVEMBER 2018

26th October 2018 – Anna Zennaro artist from Italy has been named finalist in the second Global Art Awards recognising excellence and innovation in art and design, and will be going forwards to the grand final of the prestigious awards taking place at the FIVE Jumeirah Palm Dubai on 21st November 2018.

Anna Zennaro, whose work Blue Hole in the Conceptual category has been singled out for praise by the judges will be heading for Dubai in November in the hope of winning the award in their category.

They will also have the chance to be named The Best Global Artist of 2018, which is awarded to one outstanding overall winner, who will also win an exhibition in Abu Dhabi as well as the life-long title.

Dubbed "The Oscars for the Visual Arts", The Global Art Awards celebrate the exceptional achievements of artists from across the globe. There are 16 visual arts categories, ranging from photography, street art, illustration and painting to awards recognising individual artists, including Best Newcomer; Best Sculpture Artist Award; Best Innovative Artist Award as well as the highly illustrious Best Emirati Artist Award.

In reaching the finals of the Global Art Awards, Anna Zennaro says: "It's a great honour to be named a finalist in the Global Art Awards and I am delighted to be able to join such a fantastic, roll-call of artistic talent heading for the awards in Dubai. These awards really do single out the best, most exciting artists working today, to celebrate their achievements, and I am honoured and grateful to be among them".

Joëlle Dinnage, Founder and Director of the Global Art Awards said, "We created the awards a year ago to establish an inspirational international art competition on a global scale. Artists who were successful last time have gone on to gain recognition and commissions, travel and attend exhibitions and receive a real boost to their careers.

"This year, standards have been exceptionally high and the competition has been fierce across all categories. Congratulations to all the finalists. We look forward to seeing them in Dubai."

The awards ceremony takes place on the evening of Thursday 21st November 2018 at the 16th floor Penthouse FIVE Jumeirah Palm against the backdrop of the astonishing Dubai skyline.
